Mrs. James Orr, president, conducted a brief business meeting, following the luncheon. Mrs. Thomas Moore's original essay, entitled "Candles" was read as an inspirational.

The surprise program was presented by the 75-voice, middle-grade chorus from Anza school, directed by Philip Korman.

The students, accompanied by Frank Snyder, sang traditional Christmas carols, including: "Angels We Have heard on High," "O Come, O Come, Emanuel," "Silent Night, Holy Night," "Carol of the Bells," "Fum Fum Fum," and "Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming."

Mrs. King Sawers, accompanied by Mrs. Edward Holms, sang selections from "Carnival," "The Music Man," and "At Christmas Time" from "Song of Norway." Mrs. Sawers also led the group in community singing.

Special guest were: Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent; Dr. A. N. Posner; Dr. Louis Kaplan; Dr. R. C. Morton; S. E. Waldrip; and Mrs. Margret Collin from the Torrance Unified School District and all principals of the Torrance schools.

Mrs. Hiro Muranaka, council first vice president, and her committee: Mmes. R. M. Howser, courtesy; Roscoe Anthony, co-reservation; James Reynolds, registrar; and J. W. Cleveland, hospitality, were in charge of this event.

YULE TIDE AT YUKON

Yuletide at Yukon was the theme for Thursday's PTA meeting at 7:30 in the cafeteria.

Inspiration was given by Mrs. Nis Hansen, sixth grade teacher. Music was provided by the school orchestra and chorus under the direction of Mr. Peter Fisher, who also directed the faculty chorus. Mrs. Beulah Perry's first grade will sing Christmas songs and Mrs. Harry Lambert's second grade class will present a Christmas play. Hostesses for the evening were rooms 7, 8 and 9.

Chairmen featured were music and hospitality. Yukon Elementary PTA's executive board held its annual Christmas luncheon at a local restaurant at noon Friday. Yukon is holding their annual Navajo toy drive this week under the direction of Mrs. Wendell Towell.

SING CAROLS

The newly organized Camp Fire Girl group at Howard Wood School participated with a group of Blue Birds and high school-age Camp Fire Girls in singing Christmas carols at Torrance Memorial Hospital Sunday, Dec. 15. Leader is Mrs. F. F. Fives.
